3 Psychiatrists Plan Tests for Ohio Clergyman

Minister Refuses to Pay Income Taxes For 'War Weapons'

CINCINNATI (AP) — Three psychiatrists plan tests in the next two days for a controversial pacifist minister here, under indictment on an income tax charge.

He is the Rev. Maurice F. McCracken who won't pay his taxes because he figures they go for weapons of war. War, he believes, is the greatest of evils.

The minister has been in jail here since an unusual court appearance last Friday. He had to be carried into court, refused to enter a plea and opposed efforts to assign him attorneys.

His actions caused U. S. District Judge John H. Druffel to order the mental examination. The judge appointed the second and third psychiatrists Monday.

The Rev. Mr. McCracken was indicted on a charge he failed to answer a summons for a conference with federal income tax officials.

Paid Only Part

He said he has paid only part of his income tax for 10 years because of his stand against arms and war.

He is pastor of West Cincinnati St. Barnabas Church, a joint Episcopal-Methodist congregation. He also heads a neighborhood mission.

Leaders of the church have given him a vote of confidence. The Cincinnati Presbytery decided last Oct. 22 not to intervene in his church matters because of his legal difficulties.

Episcopal Bishop Henry Wise Hobson has had several private conferences with the Rev. Mr. McCracken since the charge was filed against him.

Officials of the county American Legion unit have denounced the pastor because of his tax stand, saying his teachings are a "deliberate and dangerous example for the youth of Cincinnati."

Decided To Boycott
The legionnaires decided to boycott the annual United Fund drive here this year because the minister's neighborhood house was a member.

But after he was charged in U. S. District Court, the United Fund suspended the neighborhood house, pending disposition of the charges.

The Rev. Mr. McCracken offered to resign his director's post.

Atlas Missile Launched from Base at Cape

CAPE CANAVERAL Fla. (AP) — A mighty Atlas intercontinental ballistic missile thundered into space Monday night but the Air Force was silent today on the fate of the giant war rocket.

If the 100-ton missile hit its target, the United States took another great step forward in its campaign to develop a carrier that can drop a nuclear warhead on any target on earth.

There was official silence, however, after the Atlas blasted off at 11 p. m.

The three engines of the Atlas built up more than 350,000 pounds of thrust before the missile was released. The brilliance of its exhaust flames almost blinded newsmen watching from a platform three miles from the launching pad.

The thunder of the rocket's engines shook this area as the Atlas climbed straight upward for about a minute, then curved gracefully away to the southeast.

Four minutes later, it resembled a great star hanging in the sky. Thirty seconds later it vanished from view as its fuel burned out.

Reportedly, this Atlas was aimed for a target 3,000 miles down the Atlantic Ocean tracking range.

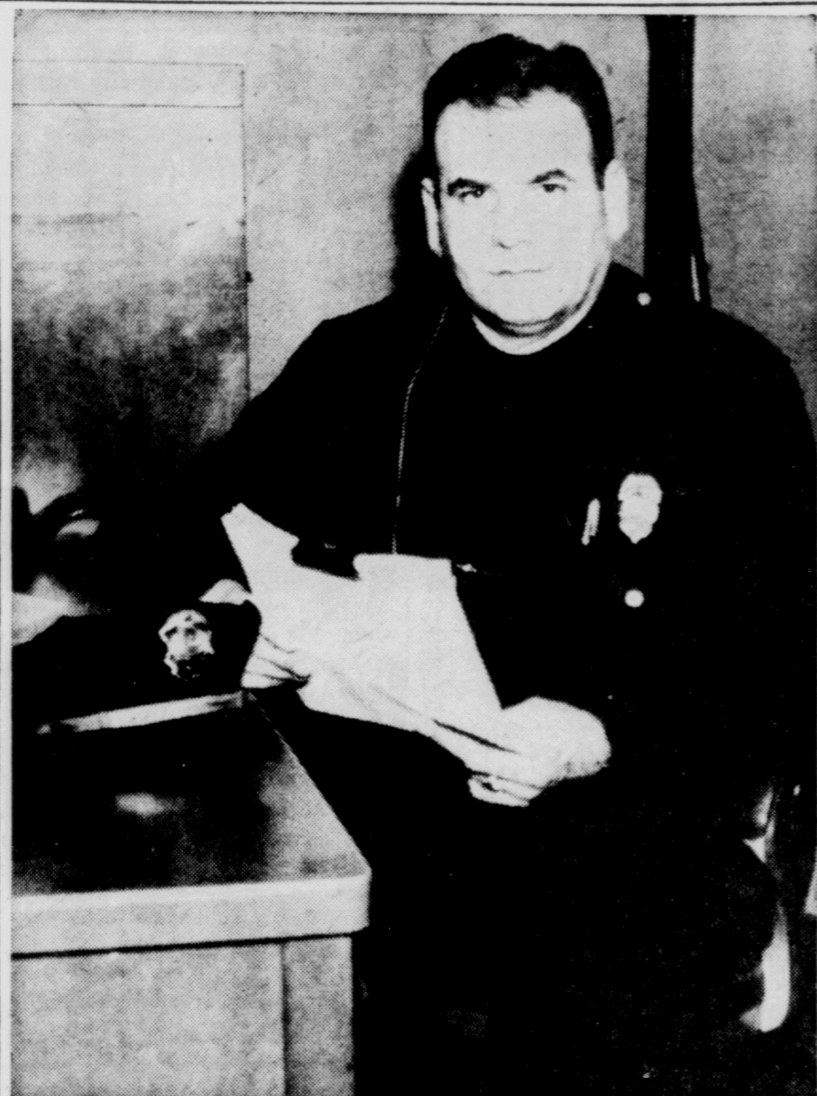

Jewelry Reported Stolen From Home

Mrs. Mary Nebbia of 257 W. Wilson St. told police someone entered her house around 2:45 p. m. while she was away Monday and stole a wrist watch valued at $79, a string of beads and a pair of earrings.

The jewelry was taken from an upstairs bedroom, she said. It is not known how the intruder entered and left the house.

Chief Lutsch, who has been a member of the police force for 16 years, two as lieutenant, was sworn in by Mayor Harold D. Smith, who appointed him after Lutsch scored the highest grade in a competitive civil service examination. The chief's job had been vacant since Chief George Earley died Sept. 26.

Doctors, Engineers Hold Meeting

Rocket Society Tells Of Rigors of Space

NEW YORK (AP)—Space pilots may whip off to Mars or the moon in their shirtsleeves, scientists said today.

The big luxuries of the trip may be only a shave and a change of underclothes from time to time. This was the rugged future of man in space suggested by a panel of space doctors and engineers at the 13th annual meeting of the American Rocket Society.

Whatever the space pilot is allowed to wear, his worst moments may come at the beginning and end of his trip.

Must Withstand Stresses
It is then he must withstand the enormous stresses of blast off acceleration and the braking of re-entry into the earth's atmosphere.

He is scarcely likely to enjoy either ordeal, said Col. John P. Stapp, U. S. Air Force researcher who has tested these stresses on the human body in rocket sled work.

A new space capsule, being built at the Air Force School of Aviation Medicine at Randolph Air Force Base, Texas, was described by Capt. Willard R. Hawkins and Dr. George T. Hauty.

It will serve as a training capsule for future space fliers and as a research chamber, they said. It will incorporate many items learned in earlier space flight experiments.

One of Biggest Items
Food may be one of the biggest morale items of the space flier.

In simulated space trips, volunteers said baby food and other unattractive items did their jobs poorly. They were demoralized. Some even became nauseated.

In fact, a high calorie diet with exotic foods, plenty of fruit juices and water, was the biggest morale item.

Mount Observatory Open Tomorrow for Public View of Mars

ALLIANCE — Visitors to the Clarke Observatory, on the Mount Union College campus, Wednesday night will have a chance to view Mars - if the weather permits clear skies.

James Rodman, director of the Observatory, has planned an open house starting at 7:30 as Mars makes its closest approach to the earth, coming within approximately 47 million miles.

A series of lectures on Wednesday evenings, which will run through Dec. 17, have already been started. These deal with the planets, comets, and meteors, such as tonight's lecture will concern Jupiter.

Commencing in January, there will be a series of lectures discussing the structure and evolution of stars.

Constructed in 1924, Clarke Observatory was made possible through the gift of Frank A. Hoover and Edgar Hoover of North Canton. The principal telescope was donated in 1924 by Elmer Harold of Leetonia and was completely rebuilt and modernized in 1953.

Judge Raymond Buzzard ruled at mid-morning the defense could not use the testimony of Fr. William Slipski, former St. Aloysius Catholic Church assistant pastor, concerning a visit Raimond paid him March 1-2, 1952.

Nixon, Johnson Eye Compromise On Senate Rule

Vice President Says Matter to Be First On January's Agenda

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Nixon and Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) apparently are preparing to take the lead toward compromising an impending fight over the Senate's filibuster rule.

Nixon has told friends he is confident the present rule — which requires 66 affirmative votes to curb debate — is going to be changed as the first order of business when the newly enlarged Senate meets in January.

As presiding officer, the vice president has made it clear he will hold in order a motion to adopt new Senate rules. In the past, the Senate traditionally has carried its rules over from one Congress to the next.

Certain To Be Appealed
Any such precedent-breaking decision by Nixon is certain to be appealed to the Senate and to be settled by a majority of its membership, raised to 98 by the addition of two new senators from Alaska.

The vice president evidently expects to go beyond such a ruling, however, and work actively toward some compromise that will make it easier to shut off the time-consuming talk which has blocked most civil rights legislation.

As an aspirant for the 1960 Republican presidential nomination, Nixon obviously is anxious to have a record of participation in any weakening of the filibuster rule.

Johnson, the Democratic leader in the Senate, has a big stake in preventing a party split on the issue.

Some Republicans, led by Sens. Clifford P. Case of New Jersey and Jacob K. Javits of New York, have proposed a rule under which two-thirds of those voting — instead of two-thirds of the entire Senate — could curb debate immediately and 50 senators could end talk that went on beyond 15 days.

Also favoring this idea are Democratic Sens. Paul Douglas of Illinois and Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota, among others. These four served notice Monday they will battle any compromise that would fall short of an effective rule change.

Nixon is reported opposed to any provision by which a majority could put a gag on debate. He is said to feel this should be done only with the approval of two-thirds of those voting.

With the Senate likely to be about equally divided on that issue, the betting is that Johnson will come up with a compromise fairly early in the new session.

Cunningham Denies Burglary

Testimony of Priest Rejected In Police Trial

LISBON — Ira Cunningham took the stand today in the East Liverpool police burglary trial at Lisbon on the heels of a rejection of testimony of a Youngstown priest that Jerry Raimond was not in East Liverpool on the date of the burglary of the Burbick Hardware Store in East Liverpool in 1952.

Judge Raymond Buzzard ruled at mid-morning the defense could not use the testimony of Fr. William Slipski, former St. Aloysius Catholic Church assistant pastor, concerning a visit Raimond paid him March 1-2, 1952.

Judge Buzzard said state law prevented use of alibi testimony unless the defense gave notice of intent three days prior to the start of the trial.

Cunningham and Robert Carroll, former officers and Raimond, ex-special officer, are charged with the March 2, 1952 burglary of the hardware store from which photographic equipment was stolen. Fr. Slipski testified yesterday

Mahoning Group Elects Officers

Committee to Study Sites for High School

Glen Moffett of RD 2, Salem Monday night was elected chairman of the 39-member committee appointed by the Mahoning Local School District Board of Education Nov. 12 to study sites for the proposed centralized high school.

The election was held at a meeting of the board and committee at McKinley School in Sebring. Others elected are: Donald Wilson of Sebring, vice chairman; and Mrs. Paul Stanley of Damascus, secretary.

The 52-acre site south of Beloit, previously chosen for the proposed school, was rejected by the board following reconsideration. Voter displeasure regarding that location is believed to have been the major cause of the defeat at the Nov. 4 election of the $1,355,000 bond issue for construction of the new high school and additions to Goshen Center Elementary School.

Norman Barnett, president of the board, was in charge of the meeting and the balloting for committee officers.

Russians Striving To Drive Allies From Berlin

BERLIN (AP)—The Soviet Embassy in East Berlin held its first news conference in four years today in an effort to dramatize Russian charges that West Berlin is a hotbed of Western spies against the Russian Communist regime.

The Soviets trotted out two Russians — a 29-year-old Soviet army lieutenant and a Moscow circus acrobat — who they claimed had deserted to the West, broadcast for the Americans and then had a change of heart.

Russian spokesman J. W. Beburkov charged that a Western campaign of anti-Soviet propaganda and activity to undermine the Soviet government is "not only endangering the Soviet Union and the other Socialist (Communist) lands but also all humanity."

The news conference, attended by more than 300 Western and Communist newsmen, was another step in the new Soviet offensive to

(?) County Employees To Get (?) Raises For (?) Paydays

LISBON — Some employees in the Courthouse and County Highway Department will receive raises as a result of action taken Monday by the Columbiana county commissioners — but the number of those affected and the length of time the increases will remain in effect are unknown.

The commissioners yesterday appropriated $2,400 for the nine Courthouse offices and the County Highway Department. The amount would provide $20-per-month raises for each Courthouse employee, and 10-cent-an-hour increases for the highway workers.

However, the commissioners left to the discretion of the department heads who would receive the increases and in what amounts — which means that some employees may receive above average increases and some none at all.

The commissioners said they made the money available at repeated requests of the employees who had received no previous wage adjustment for the past two years.

The increases will remain in effect only the remainder of this month and December, and additional funds must be appropriated if the adjustments are to continue in force after year's end, the commissioners emphasized.

Heavy Rains Kill Three in Ohio

Gates Mills, Elyria Boys Are Drowned

By The Associated Press
Cold November weather is on the way for the northeastern Ohio weatherman predicted today.

Th heavy rains and warm temperatures of the past few days aren't expected back until spring.

In Cuyahoga County Monday the heaviest November rainfall in 67 years was recorded. Rivers and streams were swollen, streets were flooded and basements submerged by 2.23 inches of rain.

Two boys died as a result of the rainstorm, Dale Richardson, 9, of Elyria Township, was swept into a Lorain County culvert and drowned. Patrick Keenan, 17, of Gates Mills, also was drowned when his boat upset in the rain-swollen Chagrin River.

Drowned In Akron

A third boy drowned in Akron, but his death was not attributed to the heavy rain. Lemar Stegall, 5, fell into the Ohio Canal near Summit Beach in South Akron. He died before rescue workers pulled him from the three-foot-deep water.

Th Richardson boy and his brothers, William Jr., 10, and Jerry, 4, were throwing bottles into the swift-running water drain.

Northern Plains Are Crippled by Heavy Snows

Diminishing Winds On Docket As Storm Moves to Canada

At least 10 deaths were attributed to one of the earliest major

Thermometers Climb To 67 Degrees Here

The pleasant warm weather which district residents have been enjoying is above average for November but yet not unusual, U. S. Cooperative Weather Observer Edwin Copeland of Millport pointed out today.

Thermometers climbed to 67 degrees here Monday, five degrees higher than the previous high for the month, city weather charts showed.

Mr. Copeland said the highest temperature reading for any day in November was 81 degrees but he said he would have to leaf through the record books to find the exact day and year. Rainfall this fall is below average, he added.

He conceded that summer was late this year and that people "deserve this kind of weather, considering that the weather in June, July and August was miserable."

winter storms in Weather Bureau history—a turbulence that swept from Texas and Louisiana to Minnesota and Wisconsin, from the slopes of the Rockies to the Mississippi River.

The storm center moved to the Minnesota-Canadian border overnight and was expected to pass into western Ontario by evening, resulting in diminishing winds and generally improving conditions over the northern Plains late to night.

Heavy snow drifting was reported over the Dakotas and northwest Minnesota, making road travel hazardous.

Dropped to 21

Temperatures dropped to 21 below at Alamosa in south central Colorado, 12 below at Flagstaff, Ariz., and 6 below at Zuni, N. M. and Bryce Canyon, Utah. Low readings from Texas to Illinois were mostly in the 20s and 30s but the temperatures sagged to 7 above at Goodland, Kan., and 12 at Dalhart, Tex.

A band of rain and scattered thunderstorms stretched from the Gulf Coast in Texas to the Ohio-Michigan border, marking the advance edge of the cold air.

A few show flurries continued over the Rockies. Rain began moving into the Northwest again, with snow over interior of Washington and Oregon.

Unusually severe for this time of year, the storm deposited as much as 16 inches of snow Monday at Lemmon, S.D.

Generally the depths were six to eight inches across western Kansas. Throughout the blizzard area wind gusts of as much as 30 miles an hour whipped the snow into road-clogging drifts and made driving hazardous. Roads from Kansas southward, however, were generally open to travel.

In the Texas and Oklahoma panhandles the snow turned to slush then froze again Monday night, making driving treacherous.

In Arizona the storm left two inches of snow on the desert, deposited 4½ inches at normally warm Tucson and 14 inches at Flagstaff.

Bone-chilling temperatures followed the clearing. The Mercury dropped to zero in northern Ari-

George McConaughy Denies Soliciting Money in TV Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — George C. McConaughy, former Federal Communications Commission chairman, denied under oath today that he ever solicited money for his vote in a Pittsburgh TV case.

McConaughy, of Columbus, Ohio, gave the testimony before the House Legislative Oversight Committee, which is looking into rumors that the former FCC head offered to sell his vote to split a 3-3 tie in the award of a license to operate Pittsburgh's channel 4.

McConaughy said he first heard of the bribe solicitation rumor when he was questioned by FBI agents in September, 1957, shortly after he left the FCC post.

Earlier, witnesses have told of what they termed widespread rumors of soliciting on behalf of McConaughy at the time of his resignation.

One rumor concerned payment of $50,000 in retainer fees to be paid through a law association into which McConaughy had entered. This allegedly would have come from one of the channel 4 applicants, Television City, Inc.

A reported rumor said the Hearst Corp., operating radio station WCAE in Pittsburgh, was ready to pay McConaughy $200,000 under a somewhat similar arrangement.

Committee counsel Robert Lishman asked McConaughy, with reference to the rumored bribe: "You did not do it personally or cause anyone to do it for you?"

"That is correct," said McConaughy. Queried on the reported Hearst solicitation, McConaughy said he could not recall exactly when he first heard of that. But he said he believed it was at the same time the FBI questioned him on the Television City solicitation.

"Hearst was not mentioned as such but it was said that there was a solicitation for $200,000 a year for 10 years," McConaughy said.

He denied also any negotiation for any arrangement under which his son, also practicing law, would receive a "profitable return."

This testimony did not appear to square completely with what a former law partner of McConaughy's, Robert D. L'Heureux, told the investigators a short time earlier.

L'Heureux said McConaughy told him that Earl Reed, one of those interested in the Pittsburgh case, hinted he could throw some business to McConaughy's son.

McConaughy testified he did not consider the mention of possible law business for his son as being "in any respect an offer of a bribe."

If he had so considered it, he said, he would immediately have reported it to the FBI.

Back to the City

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Now is the time for all good city dwellers to come to the aid of the suburbanite. Not as a matter of philanthropy—but as a matter of enlightened self-interest.

America's great cities are threatened by many things—ranging from smog to traffic jams and slum-blight. But those of us who love city life are aware of a new peril.

It is in the form of an exodus from the suburbs back to the city, a reversal of the huge postwar migration of population out from the center of the city to its fringes.

Ronald Halfacre, the typical suburbanite, now wants to come back home. He has discovered many a worm in his paradise out where the fresh air begins.

He moved to the suburbs a dozen years ago full of disdain for the big city and looking for a better way of life.

"Out there in the ozone zone things are different," Ronald said. "The schools are better. You live a healthier life, nearer to nature. Out there a neighbor's a real pal."

For some years Ronald actually believed all that guff himself.

But time has caught up with Ronald and his vision of a frontier utopia just beyond the city's pale.

His taxes have gone up, up, up. He has to ride an auto, a train and a bus to reach his job. The schools in the suburbs are more crowded than those in the city.

His wife complains she is nothing but a chauffeur for him and the kids. He needed no car in the city. He has to have two in the suburbs.

"There's nothing to do out here. In the city there was always something to do. There aren't even any parks out here. A city's got parks," the children complain.

Ronald himself is weary of traveling from one outdoor barbecue pit to another at mealtime. He is weary of being stung by mosquitoes and local repair men.

That healthy outdoor life also has begun to undermine his system. He is tired of digging his way out of snowdrifts in winter; the joy of do-it-yourself wallpapering has palled. He is bored with the gossip of nosy neighbors, who seem to regard his home left as a kind of neighborhood television program.

It is no wonder that Ronald Halfacre pines for the comfort, security and serenity of the city, where a man can solve any emergency by a phone call to the janitor.

That is why it is high time for us who remained steadfastly loyal to our cities to organize now a Society for the Amelioration of the Condition of Suburbanites.

Do you know a Ronald Halfacre? Why not mail him a tinued ham to help him over Thanksgiving? Give him a pat on the back; send him a "get well" card.

Write him a letter saying, "It's you pioneering fellows out there on the frontier of civilization who are doing so much to keep the American spirit alive. I know you won't let the nation down by giving up."

If necessary, even lend him money to keep him out there. For if 10 million Ronald Halfacres ever abandon the suburbs at once and start moving back, city life will again become as noisy, crowded and uncomfortable as well, as it now has become in the suburbs.

Nationalists Plan to Reopen Quemoy Schools

TAIPEI (AP)—The offshore island shouting lapsed into silence again today and the Nationalists on much-battered Quemoy made plans to reopen primary schools.

The schools were shut down after the Red guns on the mainland began heavy bombardment Aug. 23.

PROBLEM EXPLAINED

Columbus Girl, 10, Is Shot, Killed by Blast From Shotgun

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A widow grieved for her dead daughter today, and a divorced father of five told police:

"I hope whoever reads about this don't (sic) make the mistake I did."

The father, Woodrow Wright, apparently referred to a 20-gauge shotgun left in a back bedroom of his house in Columbus. His 9-year-old son, Robert, found the gun Monday when he and four other youngsters were alarmed by a noise, Robert loaded it and was knocked down by the recoil when it discharged.

The blast fatally wounded Carol Ann Green, a 10-year-old neighbor. She had come to the house with her 9-year-old sister to go to school with the three younger Wright children.

Wright was already at work when the shooting occurred. He rushed home when his 11-year-old daughter telephoned him, found Carol and called police.

Police said he is being held for investigation of contributing to the neglect of children because the youngsters were left without supervision from 6:50 a.m. when Wright went to work, until they left for school.

Wright told police he has had custody of the children since his divorce four years ago. He has a baby sitter for the evening, he added.

Robert was held at the Juvenile Center here for investigation of delinquency, and the other youngsters of the Wright family were taken to a county youth center.

The coroner ruled the death homicide. He said a court will have to decide whether it was accidental.

Police said the noise which alarmed the youngsters originally was falling coat hangers.

U.S., British Planes

Racing Across Atlantic

LONDON (AP) — A British Comet IV and an American Boeing 707 raced across the Atlantic Ocean today. Jet airline passenger competition was in full swing.

The Comet of British Overseas Airways Corp. was due in New York with 33 passengers at 2:35 p.m. est. Pan American's 707 was scheduled to land 110 passengers in New York at 1:45 p.m.

The Comet left London Airport with a 35-minute lead. Planes were to refuel at Gander, Nfld.

BOAC started daily New York-London jet service last Friday. Pan American's inaugural was delayed 13½ hours Monday by fog which trapped it in Ireland.

Senior Citizens Set

Election of Officers

Senior Citizens will meet Wednesday at 1 p.m. in the upstairs room of the Memorial Building to elect officers. This meeting will take the place of the regular monthly meeting previously scheduled for Nov. 26.

A special program of music and movies has been arranged by Mrs. Constance Everett, program chairman, and her committee. A birthday cake, honoring members whose birthdays are celebrated in November, will be served by the Salem Section, National Council of Jewish Women.

All men and women in the Salem area who are 60 years of age or older are eligible to attend any of the meetings and are invited to join if they so desire.

HOSPITAL'S 1,000TH BABY OF YEAR — Harvey Richard Eakin cuddles in the arms of his mother, Mrs. Richard L. Eakin of 1773 E. State St., following his arrival at Salem City Hospital on Monday to become the 1,000th baby born at City Hospital this year. Births thus far in 1958 at City Hospital have included 528 boys and 460 girls, with 13 sets of twins counted. There were 60 prematures. The average length of stay of OB patients at the hospital was 4.7 days, Hospital Administrator C. F. Mosher said.

BODY IDENTIFIED

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—A body found by a hunter Saturday in a field near Perry has been identified as that of Miss Nancy Burmaster, 74. Coroner Richard W. McBurney of Lake County said she apparently died of natural causes after disappearing 2½ months ago from the Perry Ridge Rest Home on Ohio 84. A ward of the state since 1921, Miss Burmaster was moved to the rest home 18 months ago from the Apple Creek State Hospital. Authorities said she had no known relatives.

THE THINGS THEY WANT
FOR CHRISTMAS

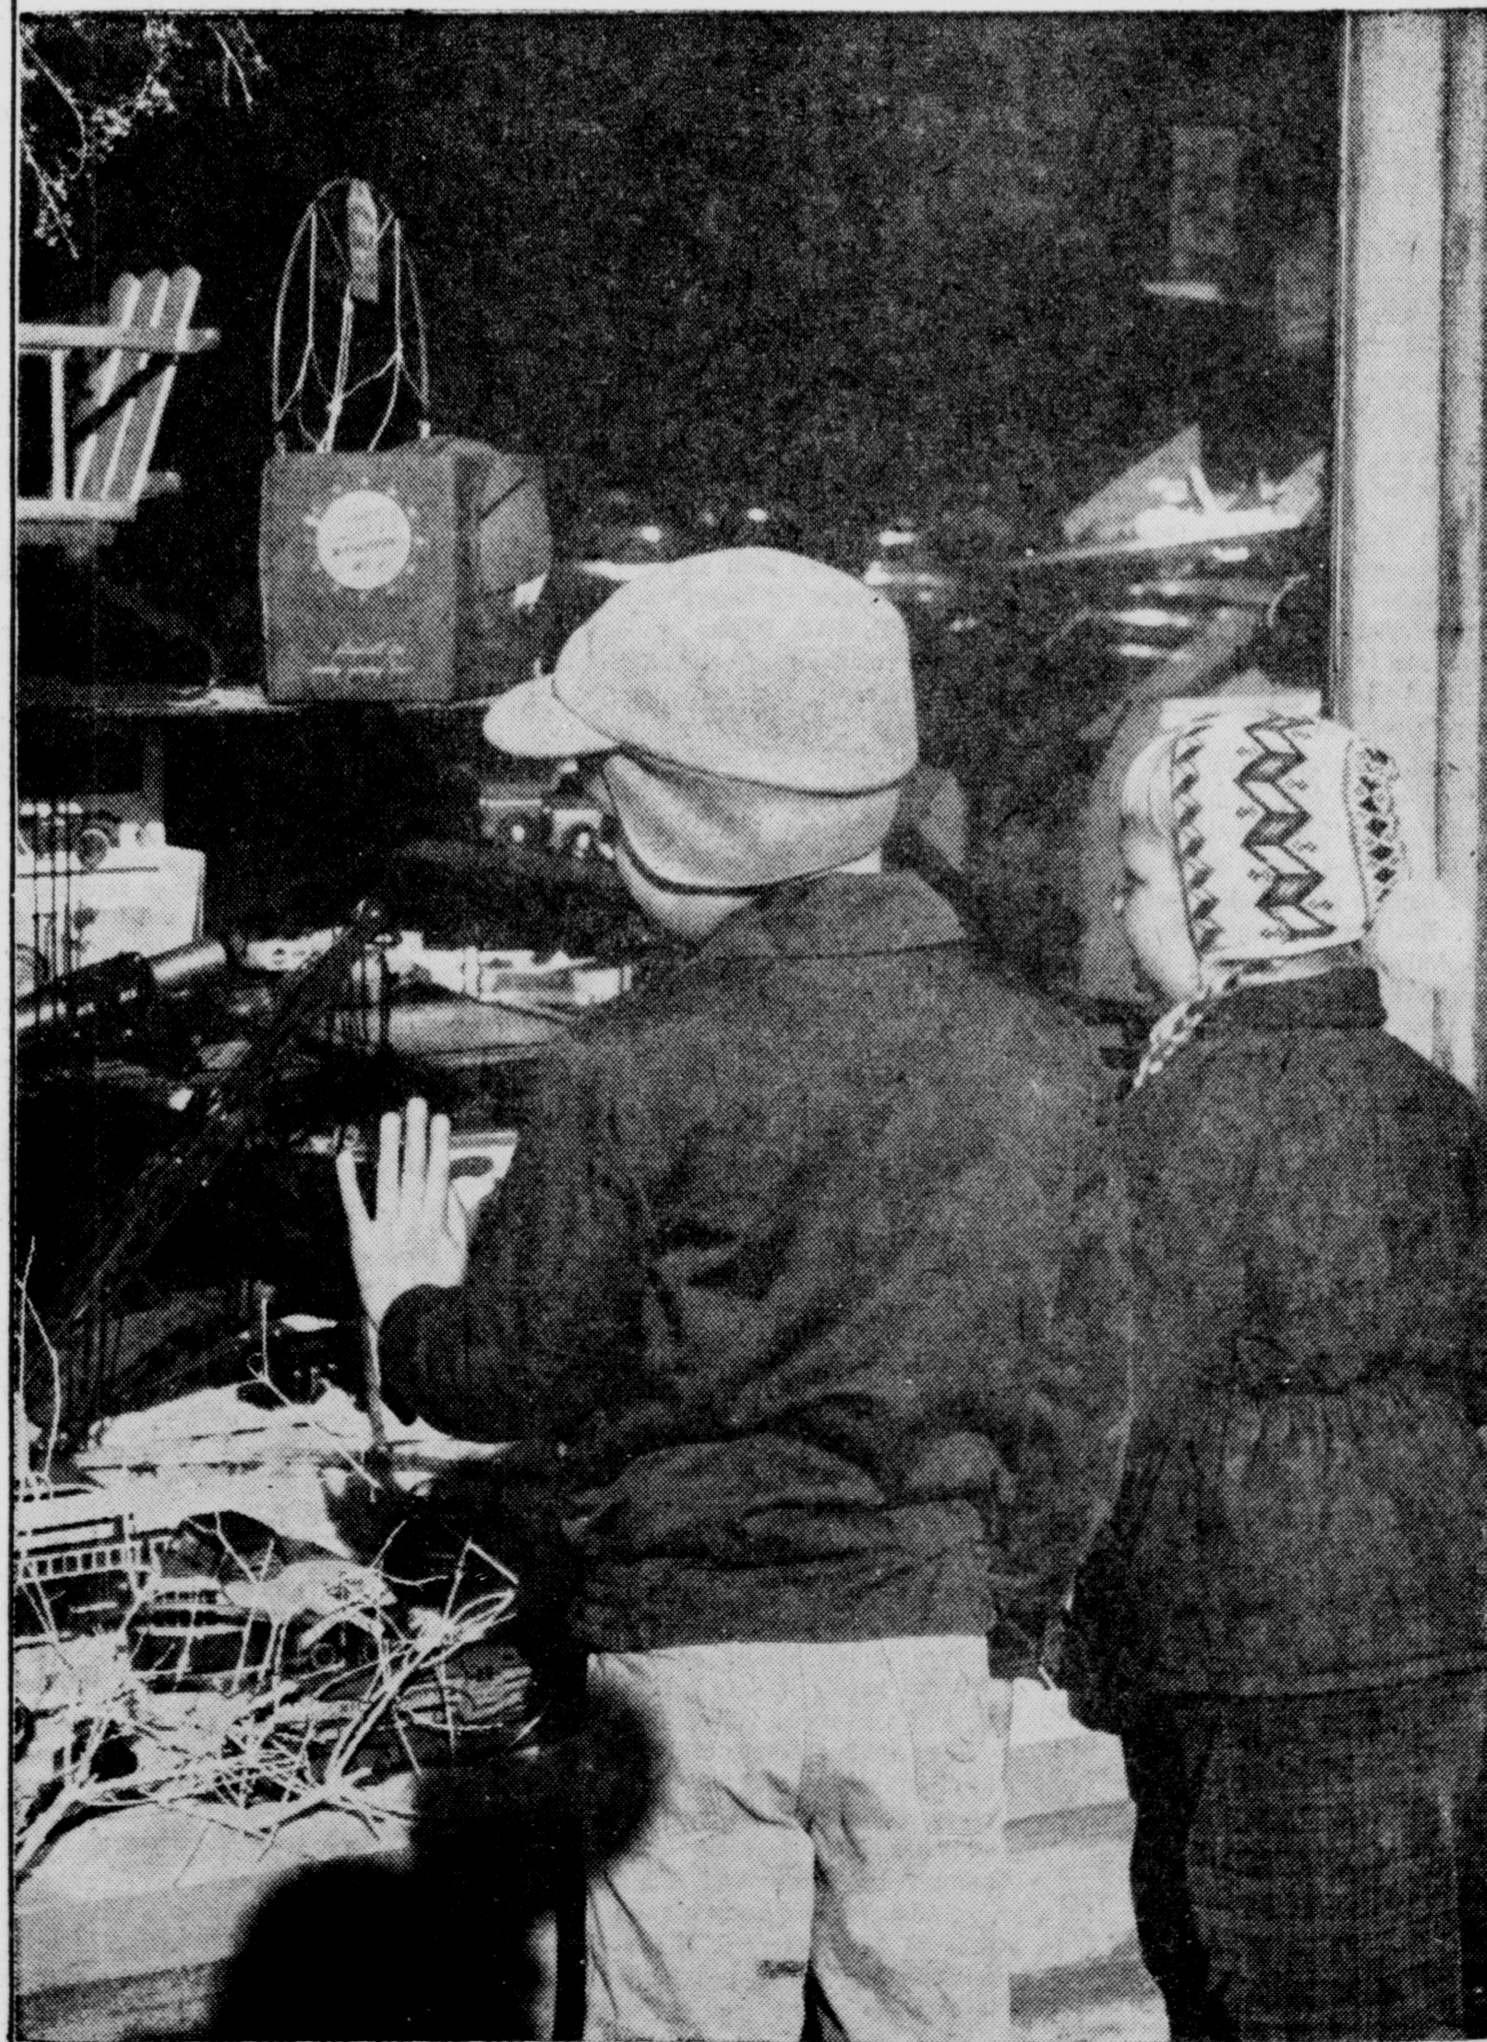

You know what they're hoping to find under the tree on Christmas morning. The lists have probably been made out for weeks.

You want their Christmas dreams to come true... but you know that those dreams of trains and dolls and trucks and bikes cost money.

Maybe you also know how a Salem News Want Ad can help you get that money. But just in case you've forgotten, here's the simple procedure. Look through the house for things you no longer use or want. Then call ED. 2-4601 and list those items for sale with a Salem News Want Ad. An ad taker will help you write your ad, if you like.

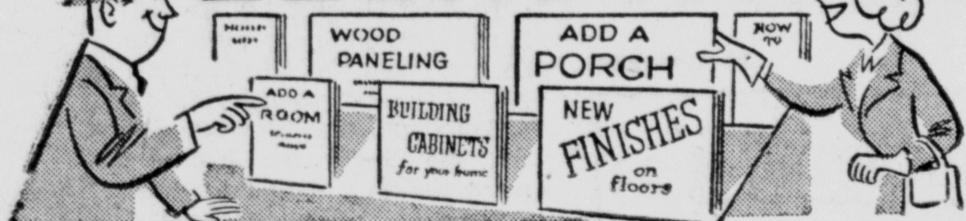

When you sell "don't needs" with a Salem News Want Ad you have the money to make their Christmas Dreams come true.

On the Bookshelves

Listing of New Books at Salem Public Library

Collections of short stories are not too popular with American readers, but a new collection by Norah Loft is well worth the reader's time. The stories in "Heaven is in Your Hand" vary from the somber to the frothy but each is a fine example of the short story writer's art.

In a factual book that reads like fiction, David Lavender presents a history of the Pacific Northwest from 1750-1950. "Land of Giants" tells the colorful story of the search for the northwest passage, the exploitation of the Indians and of the natural resources of the area, and of the growth of the fastest growing cities in our country.

FICTION
"Other Side of the Day" by Hilda Krech. Margaret loved her husband and her two children, but she refused to be nothing more than just a housewife. The near tragedy made her choose between home and career.

"Five Galaxy Short Novels" edited by H. L. Gold. A collection of short science fiction novels, several by well known authors in this field.

"Pin a Rose on Me" by Josephine Blumenfeld. A novel of reminiscences of a well-to-do English widow, written with an eye to presenting humorous experiences in a casual way.

"Mary of Nazareth" by Esther Kellner. The story of the young girl, Mary, who marries Joseph the carpenter and gives birth to the Messiah. The novel tells of the girl from her fourteenth birthday through womanhood.

"Beware of the Mouse" by Leonard Wibberley. Another slim volume of satire about activities in the Grand Duchy of Fenwick. In this one, Sir Dermot, one of the intrepid bowmen, proves that brains are more of a weapon than all the cannon in the French army.

"Santa Fe Wagon Boss" by Cliff Farrell. A western adventure involving a wagon freight outfit is robbed, sold by conniving partners, and otherwise beset by trouble until Alex and Charlotte save the day.

"Housebreaker of Shady Hill" by last year's National Book Award novel presents a collection of short stories in which description and thought replace action in carefully plotted sketches.

"Trouble With Lazy Ethel" by Ernest K. Gann. A rollicking story of a stuffy, bad-mannered American general; his hard drinking wife, and various other amusing characters who survive the hurricane Lazy Ethel on a South Pacific atoll.

NON FICTION
"Flowers of the World in Full Colors" by R. S. Lemmon and C. L. Sherman. Besides giving much information about the origins, migrations, locales, and other aspects of flowers, there are more than 660 color plates.

"The Doctor Business" by Richard Carter. An explanation of the business side of the medical profession; the policies of the American Medical Association, and how they affect availability and cost of treatment.

"Peninsula" by L. D. Rich. A warm and discerning picture of life on Goldsborough Peninsula in Maine, with chapters on lobstering, the language of the sea, and the peaceful life of the inhabitants.

"Round the World with Famous Authors." This book contains selections from the work of some 200 famous authors, from Henry James to James Michener, who have written about the beautiful, strange and wonderful places of the world.

"The White House and Its Thirty-Two Families" by A. L. Jensen. Interesting stories and anecdotes about the families and important visitors who have lived and stayed at the White House.

"The Rome I Love" by Georges Pillement. A visit to Rome in photographs and text which shows the beautiful, the different, and the commonplace that appeals to the author.

TO AFFECT CUSTOMERS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Wholesale customers in Ohio and 12 other states would be affected if the Federal Power Commission permits the 7.7 per cent $19,435,000 annual natural gas rate increase asked by Tennessee Gas Transmission Co. of Houston, Tex. It's necessary because of increased costs of purchased gas, the company says.

Guarding Your Health

By DR. EDWIN P. JORDAN

Seek Reason For Child's Balky Behavior

It is often hard to know where a physical condition leaves off and an emotional problem begins. This is illustrated in a letter from Mrs. J.

She says that her 4-year-old daughter attended Bible school one day and was ill the next and could not go. The third day she was excited about going, but when the man came to pick her up she cried and kicked and would not get in the car.

The mother says that she is punishing the little girl by making her stay in her room all day and asks if this is right.

I should like to say first that I do not think that it is right to make a 4-year-old little girl stay in her room all day. A day is terribly long at that age. It seems to me that the punishment does not fit the crime.

THERE CAN BE any number of reasons why the 4-year-old decided she did not want to go back to Bible school. She may not have been feeling well from her one day illness. She may have had some unpleasant experience with one of the other children, or she may have found the school too advanced for her tender age.

I believe that the problem is neither to punish the little girl, nor force her unduly, but to try to find out why she does not want to go.

IF HER REASONS are good, perhaps this experience can be postponed until she is a bit older. It is also possible that once the reason is found it can be readily corrected. But some reason is surely there.

A question comes from another mother who asks whether there is any better way of selecting toys for her children than just looking at them in the store.

This question can be answered by referring to the new booklet entitled "Toys," recently released by the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults (11 South La Salle St., Chicago 3, Ill.—price $1).

This booklet is to help parents select toys in conformity with the child's growth and development.

It is particularly useful for parents of children who are physically handicapped or awkward, since it includes the choice of toys for the training of reaching, grasping, eye and hand coordination, and the like. However, it should also be extremely helpful to the parents of normal children.

Letters to this column frequently make me feel sorry both for parents and for children.

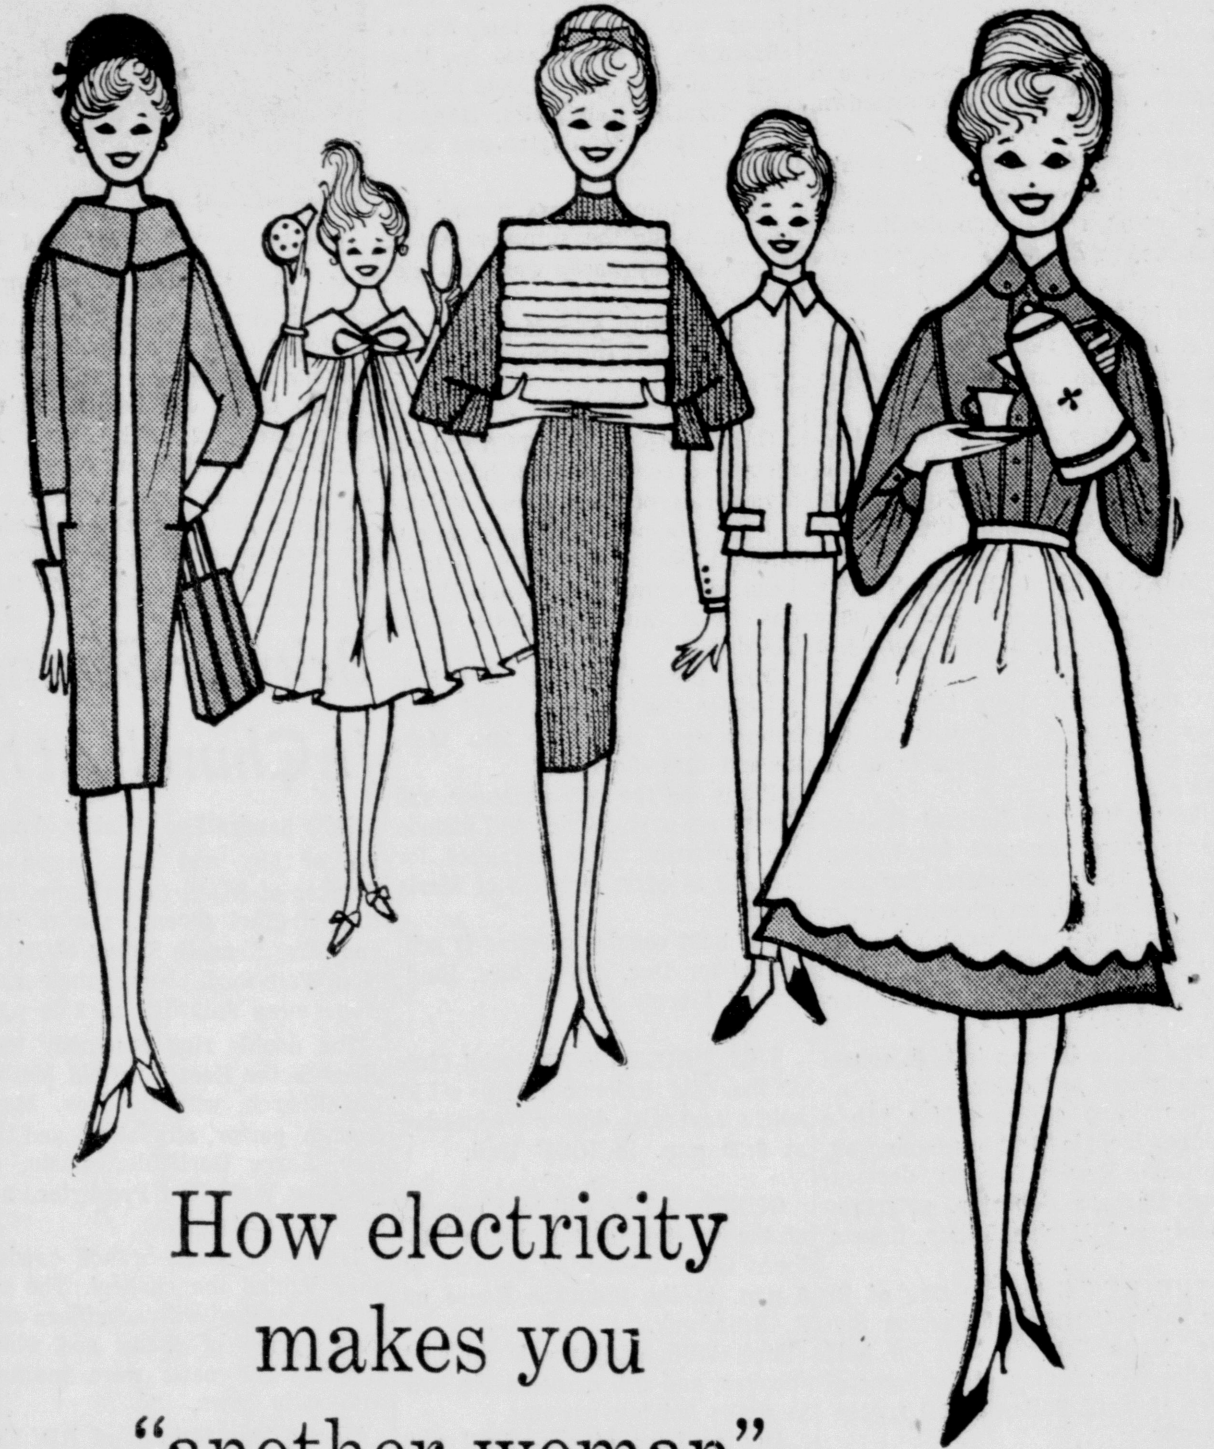

One lady wrote recently, "I have a friend who has a darling 3-month old baby girl. My friend has had nerves and her baby sometimes has the colic. This upsets the mother very much and she loses her temper, screaming at the child and by the result of air in the digestive tract, which causes sharp pain. When the child gets a little older this disappears since the air is expelled more readily.

I am sure that the mother of this, or any other colicky child, gets upset by the crying. However, the baby cannot help it, and it can only be upsetting for all concerned for the mother to lose her temper. A pediatrician should be consulted and may be able to make some suggestions to reduce the colic and thereby help both mother and child.

ELECTED CHAIRMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Archbishop Karl J. Alter of Cincinnati has been elected chairman of the National Catholic Welfare Conference's administrative board, which determines policy. Bishop Emmet M. Walsh of Youngstown, Ohio, is chairman of the board's legal department.

The Social Notebook

MRS. ROGER RYAN of Alliance shower Thursday at the home of her mother, Mrs. Lynn Koch of 142 S. Union Ave.

Assisting Mrs. Koch was Mrs. Eugene John of Youngstown, formerly Jean Solmen of Salem.

Nineteen guests attended from Salem, Berlin Center, Youngstown, Leetonia and Alliance.

The shower centerpiece was a doll in a decorated cradle covered with a large umbrella surrounded with small baskets and umbrellas. A decorated bassinet held the gifts.

Bingo prizes were won by Mrs. Raymond Robinson, Mrs. Harry Rutledge, Mrs. Jean Williams of Salem, and Mrs. Mike Solmen of Leetonia. The special prize was won by Mrs. Harry Kelly of Salem. Lunch was served by the hostess.

MARCIA MILLER and Sally Snowball were welcomed as new members of Hy-Timers during a recent meeting.

Club pictures were taken Tuesday when the girls met at the home of Barbara Schuster of E. State St.

Plans for a Harvest Holiday dance were arranged for Friday, Nov. 28, at the Memorial Building. The Reflectors, an orchestra from Goshen School, will furnish the music for dancing from 9 to 12 p.m. Entertainment will also be featured.

The dance is open to high school sophomores and older.

Committee chairman for the dance include Pat Swennington, posters; Juanita Breault, decorating; Barbara Schuster, entertainment; and Marcia Miller, tickets.

THE REGULAR meeting of Beta Theta Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority will be held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Howard Bailey of RD 1, Hanoverton.

The group visited the Christmas-at-home tea recently, after which they went to the home of Mrs. Isaac Skeels of RD 4, Lisbon. "Christmas Gift Ideas" was the topic for discussion.

LLOYD MORRISON was elected president of the West Virginia Association at the recent meeting of the planning board at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hannay of W. School St.

Other officers elected were: Robert Jeffries, vice president; Mrs. Hannay, secretary; and Charles Bennington, treasurer. Mrs. Paul Jones was appointed telephone chairman, to be assisted by Mrs. Ray Stallmaker, Mrs. Clyde Linger, Mrs. Charles Kelly, Mrs. Hannay, Mrs. Charles Bennington and Mrs. Thomas Sheets.

Mr. Bennington was named the chairman for the summer picnic. A pre-holiday party was also discussed.

Mrs. Hannay and Mrs. Edward Furrier served refreshments to the 18 guests.

CARDS AND CHATTER Club members celebrated birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Jerry Colazzi, Mrs. Lemuel Anderson, Mrs. William Mehno and Mrs. George Ursu when the group met Thursday with Mrs. Anderson of E. Third St.

Mrs. Robert Houlette won first prize for "500," and second prize honors were shared by Mrs. Mehno and Mrs. Colazzi.

Plans for the gift exchange and Christmas party, which will include the husbands, were arranged for Dec. 13 at Mrs. Mehno's of Merle Road.

The next regular meeting is scheduled for Dec. 4 with Mrs. Houlette of Liberty St.

THE THREE LINKS Social Club of the Odd Fellows Lodge will hold a covered-dinner Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. in IOOF Hall.

GUEST NIGHT will be observed at the meeting of the Junior Mothers Club Wednesday evening at 8 p.m. at the Smucker House on S. Broadway.

Mrs. William Lowry is guest speaker, and will demonstrate how to make holiday wreaths.

Any mothers of pre-school age children, within a five mile radius of Salem, are invited to attend.

THE WESLEYAN CLASS of the First Methodist Church will be entertained Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the home of Miss Nellie Pardee of 251 W. 7th St. Mrs. Jesse Pottorf will be speaker. Mrs. Audrey Scullion is program chairman.

Richard Stagers Jr. of Chester, W. Va., served as best man.

The bride's mother, who wore a royal blue sheath with beige accessories, and the bridegroom's mother, whose dress was navy blue, both wore corsages of pink carnations.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride is a graduate of New Waterford High School. Her husband attended East Liverpool High School and is employed by Harker's Pottery in Chester.

Garden Study Club to Hold Party Dec. 8

Salem Garden Study Club will hold its Christmas dinner party on Dec. 8 at 6 p.m. at Timberlanes. Afterward, the members will go to the home of Mrs. Russell Moore of Edgewood Drive for a gift exchange and social time.

The dinner committee is comprised of Mrs. Lee Christen, chairman; Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Leonard Hoppes and Mrs. Jesse Edwards. The yule party was planned at a recent meeting in the Ruth Smucker House when Mrs. David Keller was guest speaker. Mrs. Robert Rheutan, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Keller, who gave an illustrated talk on candle-making.

Committees for next year were named by Mrs. George Peterson, and an announcement was made of the regional state Christmas meeting which is to be held Dec. 5 in Cleveland.

Mrs. Fred Koenreich, reported on the November meeting of the Salem Federation of Women's Club and explained a plan in which member clubs are to assist in adding to the silverware for use at the Smucker House.

Members welcomed eight guests. Mrs. A. A. Parker, Mrs. James Giffin, Mrs. Gordon Scullion, Mrs. John King, Mrs. Paul Gross, Mrs. Glenn Gleckler, Mrs. Fred Switzer, and Mrs. Roy Roller.

Hostesses, Mrs. Louis Ospeck, Mrs. Paul Campanelli and Mrs. Leo Edwards, served refreshments.

Don't end a business letter with the phrase "Thanking you in advance." A better way of saying "thank you" for a service not yet performed is: "I will appreciate your doing whatever is possible to set this matter straight" or some similar phrase.

The phrase "thinking you in advance" is not used in well-written business letters.

Lisbon Couple Wed 50 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Hill

Mr. and Mrs. Sanford M. Hill of 226 Pritchard Ave., Lisbon will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday.

Open house will be held at the home from 2 until 5 p.m. for friends and relatives. No invitations have been issued.

Sanford Hill and Esther Anderson were married in the home of the bride Nov. 25, 1908. The Rev.

F. M. Shultz of the Trinity Lutheran Reformed Church officiated. The couple are the parents of four sons: Charles, Joseph, Richard and Sanford Jay of Lisbon; two daughters: Mrs. Dorothy Brenner of Kensington, and Mrs. La Coalmer of Columbiana. There are 19 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Brinker-Streng Vows Heard In Church At New Waterford

Miss Sandra Lee Brinker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alton D. Brinker of RD 2, Columbiana, and Ronald Earl Streng, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Streng of RD 1, New Waterford, pledged their marriage vows Saturday at 2:30 p.m.

The double ring ceremony took place in the East Fairfield Methodist Church, with the Rev. Mark George, pastor, officiating, and the Rev. Larry Hartfelder, pastor of the New Waterford Presbyterian Church, assisting.

Tapers in seven branch candelabra lighted the chancel. The altar was banked with schefflera and large sprays of yellow and white gladioli. The pews were marked with satin bows.

Miss Eileen Grimm of RD, Columbiana played the organ selections, "Because," "I Love You Truly," "Through the Years," "O Promise Me," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Princess Style Gown

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her ballerina princess style gown of lace over satin was styled with a V-neckline and long pointed sleeves. Complementing her attire was a string of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.

She wore a fingertip veil of silk illusion and carried a bouquet of white mums combined with ivy and white streamers.

Miss Velma Brinker of RD, Lisbon a cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, while Miss Barbara Streng, a sister of the bridegroom served as bridesmaid.

Miss Brinker, dressed in turquoise, and Miss Streng, in coral, wore taffeta gowns styled alike with sweetheart necklines and harem skirts. Each wore a matching net headband trimmed with seed pearls and carried bouquets of yellow mums showered with yellow ribbons. The strands of pearls they wore were gifts from the bride.

John Taylor of New Waterford was best man. Thomas L. Meek of Massillon, a cousin of the bride and LaVerne Brinker, of RD 2, Columbiana, a brother of the bride, ushered.

The bride's mother wore a royal blue dress, black and white accessories and a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Mrs. Streng's dress of medium blue was accented by navy blue and white accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

A reception was held in the church social room. The three-tiered wedding cake, decorated with yellow rosettes, was topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom ornament. The refreshment table, laid with white linen, was made attractive with runners of ivy and yellow lighted candles.

Illa Brinker, a cousin of the bride, and Ellen Long served the cake. Mrs. Dorothy Williams poured the punch.

The 125 guests from Cleveland, Massillon, Goshen, Salem, Columbiana, Canfield, Leetonia, Lisbon and Indiana were registered by Miss Marly Jennings of Goshen, a cousin of the bride.

The new Mrs. Streng is a graduate of Fairfield High School. Class of 1956 and is an office employee in the Deming Co. Her husband, who was graduated from New Waterford High School, Class of 1954, is a carpenter employed by Dick Snyder, Columbiana contractor.

For her going away outfit, the bride chose a beige faille dress with black accessories and she wore a white orchid corsage.

After their return from a wedding trip, the couple will reside at Park Ave. in New Waterford.

Cub Dens 5 and 6

Den 6 of Cub Scout Pack Three of the Presbyterian Church has been meeting this month with Mrs. Harry Barker, den mother, assisted by Mrs. Albert Linder.

Cubs in this den visited Red Cross headquarters and were given first aid instruction by Jack Wentworth. Handicraft work consisted of making plywood scrapbooks, fastened with leather, and with the words, "Cub Scouts" imprinted on the face, then shellacked.

Members of this den are Fred Crowgey, Harry Hofmeister, Charles Corbet, Gary Barker, Stephen Linder, Greg Eckstein, David Lipp and Paul Fennema.

Den 5 of Cub Scout Pack Three, Presbyterian Church, are working under the supervision of Mrs. John Van Blaricom, den mother, with Mrs. Louis Schilling as assistant. The cubs made corn cob dolls for their handicraft work. They toured the fire station Nov. 11.

Boys in this den include Keith Van Blaricom, Clayton Holt, Jimmy Vocature, Billy Schilling, Tim Williams, Robert Conrad, Ricky Herron, David Schmid, Craig Everett and David Roberts.

Presbyterian Group to Meet Wednesday

"Every Woman Has A Share" is the theme for the meeting of the Women's Association of the First Presbyterian Church Wednesday evening at 7:30.

The theme is in conjunction with the Thanksgiving opportunity projects which are: The Board of National Missions LaProgresiva in Cuba where Christian leaders for South America are trained; the Board of Christian Education for the vocational conferences to present the call for Christian and church vocations to youth, and for fellowships for graduate study to prepare qualified persons for strategic positions of Christian teachings; and Commission on Acumenical Mission to stimulate and prepare Christian women overseas for service in church and community.

New members will be honored and a thank-offering dedication will be conducted during the meeting.

Reports of recent group meetings are as follows:

September
Mrs. J. H. Criswell and Mrs. John McCormick were hostesses when the September Group met at the church. Fourteen members were in attendance.

Mrs. William King was devotion chairman and used "Thanksgiving" as her theme. Mrs. Robert Dunn was in charge of the program. The topic was "I Married a Moslem."

A farewell gift was given to Mrs. Rena Welch who moved to Salineville recently.

The Christmas party was scheduled for Dec. 3 at the home of Mrs. Chester Kridler of 247 W. 16th St. December

A breakfast buffet was served to the 14 members of the December group who met at the home of Mrs. Harold Musser of S. Lincoln Ave., on Wednesday.

The group welcomed Mrs. Earl Johnson, a newcomer, from Indiana.

Mrs. A. C. Bartholomew gave a talk about her recent trip to Europe. She described the various churches and cathedrals which she visited at the Brussels World's Fair, Scotland, and in France.

Mrs. Dan Sutherin opened the meeting with The Lord's Prayer. Plans were made for the joint meeting to be held with the February and May groups on Dec. 9 in Fellowship Hall. The family night supper for Dec. 17 was also discussed.

Mrs. William Tomkinson, devotion leader, continued the meeting with a discussion of the miracles of Luke. Mrs. Wayne Brown, program leader, reviewed the story, "I Married a Moslem" by Nancy Edison Haggbach, in which the author discusses the social habits and religious mores of the people of the Middle East.

The next meeting will be on Dec. 7 at 9 a.m. at the church.

March, June, July and August groups held a joint meeting and covered dinner in Fellowship Hall.

Mrs. F. Edwin Miller offered a vocal solo and led group singing. Mrs. Gail Herron played piano accompaniment.

The opening prayer was given by Mrs. Raymond Stiver, and the devotion subject, "Dr. Luke and the Parables," was presented by Mrs. Eugene Early.

Mrs. Norman Pim reviewed the story, "I Married a Moslem."

Leornians Enjoy Travel Talk, Book Reviews by 3 Members

When Leornians met recently, the civic welfare committee reported a donation will be given to the YWCA and that the club will continue its dental fund program for school children needing assistance. Members voted to provide gifts for a needy family at Christmas time.

In keeping with this year's theme, "Prescription for Living," Miss Ala Zimmerman continued with part II of the narration of her trip abroad.

Prescribing travel for a little learning through seeing, listening and even eating in other countries, Miss Zimmerman reviewed her travels to 11 countries abroad.

She reported on England's school system and highlighted her talk with interesting personal experiences in every country. She told of time spent with friends in Berlin, who were living in the U.S. Army sector which was built in Grunewald Forest.

Prescribing sufficient reading to create greater understanding, Miss

Harriet Percival introduced three members who gave brief book reviews.

The R. H. Macy story and the "Price is Right" by Margaret Case Harriman was reviewed by Mrs. Alfred Fitch.

"Tusitola of the South Seas" by Joseph W. Ellison was Mrs. Elmer Kerr's choice. A biographical sketch of Robert Louis Stevenson's life on the South Sea Islands, Tusitola meaning "teller of tales" was the name given him by the natives.

Listed currently as top choice on the non-fiction best seller list, "Only in America," a collection of Harry Golden's essays was presented by Mrs. Willard Albertsen.

Mrs. Jack Hovis, president, announced Mrs. John H. Liggett had been accepted as a new member.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Robert Hall, Miss Lois Roller, Miss Thelma Thomas, Mrs. A. F. Huber, and Mrs. Alberta Townsend.

Leornians will meet again on December 10.

Trades Class Party Enjoyed On Saturday

The second annual Salem Trades Extension faculty Christmas party was held Saturday evening at Heck's Restaurant, Columbiana. Alliance Trades Extension faculty members also were in attendance.

Places were set for 80 at the dinner table which was decorated with a floral arrangement of yellow and bronze pompons and colorful fall leaves. Frank Maus gave the invocation.

The Junior High School Quintet, Cathy Cameron, Patty Dolansky, Karen Moff and Patt Weitzer, entertained with musical selections.

The entertainment committee included Edith Davis, Carol Melinger, Sue Stanley and Kay Stanley.

A Christmas gift from the faculty and secretaries was presented to Holland Cameron, Trades Extension co-ordinator.

A wedding gift was presented to Mr. and Mrs. John Chick. Mrs. Chick is a faculty member. A gift also was presented to Dr. and Mrs. Walter Garland of Alliance. Dr. Garland is assistant superintendent of Alliance schools.

Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Clyde Knestrick and Gus Isaksson. The table centerpiece was presented to Sue Stanley.

Rogers Couple Home After Honeymoon

Kenneth Floyd Ours of East Liverpool and his bride, the former Miss Joyce Elaine Hussar, who pledged their marriage vows Nov. 8, have returned from a honeymoon trip and are now residing in Rogers.

The wedding took place in the sanctuary of the Rogers Methodist Church with the pastor, the Rev. Mark George, officiating at the double ring ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hussar of Rogers are the bride's parents, while the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Melvina Ours of East Liverpool and the late Theodore Ours.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. The ceremony was witnessed by the immediate families and close friends.

A corsage of pink sweetheart roses complemented the bride's poude blue suit. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls and matching earrings, a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Sharon Betts of Clarkson, maid of honor, was attired in a beige tweed suit with beige accessories. Her corsage was fashion-

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

My exclusive for today is the report that James R. Hoffa, in a burst of dedication to free and open competition, is officially in the anti-racketeering business. Reflecting his genius for organization, James, the Riddle, has, of course, set up a subsidiary which is known as The Anti-Racketeering Commission. (Do I hear anybody saying that the percentages are all in his favor?)

As befits any tycoon, his subsidiary is headed by an ex-government jobholder (who had something to do with national wild life as guarded by the Department of Interior). And there is, of course, an expensive executive suite with an impressive address—50, Esso Standard Oil Building, Washington, D.C.

Should you want to contact the commission's chief, his name is George Bender. His phone number is STerling 3-3295. You must phone him early, for he is a devoted man now engaged in making the Teamsters a more perfect union for Jim Hoffa.

This keeps both Bender and Hoffa busy. For they are seeking crime and corruption in the Teamsters Union. They just can't seem to pin down any of "those rumors." And you know how competitors are.

EX-SEN. BENDER has said that his commission is a do-it-yourself outfit and won't go nosing around that McClellan committee.

So, it can be exclusively reported here that Hoffa's Anti-Racketeering Commission has gone right to the source, the Teamsters' 900-odd locals. It is asking these local officials if they, by any chance, have run into any racketeering. If so, please let ex-Sen. Bender know.

I have evidence to prove that Hoffa's Anti-Racketeering Commission is in business. On Oct. 23, Mr. Bender dispatched a hitherto unreported letter to all local Teamster chiefs. It said, in part: "Briefly, the Anti-Racketeering Commission has been assigned the responsibility of investigating and making recommendations with respect to:

1. All charges made by the McClellan Committee of racketeering in the Teamsters Union.
2. Infiltration of racketeers or gangsters in local and international union offices.
3. Any alliance with racketeers or gangsters at any level of the international union or its subordinate bodies.

Our Commission is no white-wash commission. The commission accepted the assignment in that spirit. We have been given a free hand.

"IN THE COURSE of our activities of certain individuals mentioned before the McClellan committee. We do not intend to take the committee's word alone. We want all the facts.

"We would like to know if there have been any cases of racketeering or gangster alliances in your local. If there have been none, tell us."

Mr. Bender winds up by saying to the local chiefs, some of whom know him well, for they supported him for re-election to the Senate from Ohio, by saying that he knows the boys are busy, but please write anyway.

"JOINT ADVENTURE"—Senate majority leader Lyndon Johnson tells the United Nations that the nations of the world should cooperate to make the exploration of outer space a "joint adventure."

We always like to be of help. So if the boys don't write, I know where Mr. Bender can get much of the information he seeks. Apparently he's overlooked one source. I quote a crusading fellow by the name of Robert Kennedy, chief counsel to the Senate racket-busting committee:

"WE HAVE NEVER had any communication or any request for any information from the so-called Anti-Racketeering Commission," Kennedy tells me. "We have accumulated a considerable amount of evidence on Mr. Hoffa and his partners. Mr. Bender is welcome to all this.

"Whenever he is ready, Bender can save considerable time, energy and Teamster money simply by sending down the street for this evidence and taking appropriate action against Mr. Hoffa."

A line on this evidence is reflected in what Sen. McClellan reported some weeks ago. He said here were 141 Teamster officials about whom his committee received derogatory information or testimony. Of these, 73 refused to answer 3,044 questions on the grounds that the answers would incriminate the union officials.

Surely ex-Sen. Bender remembers the address of the Senate Office Building. He used to work there.

Credit Cards Open Many Doors---At a Price

It's Your Pocketbook

By FAYE HENLE
(NEA Staff Writer)

Before the year is out, we'll wager, if you do not already sport a credit card or two, you will.

Credit card companies, fast growing in size and just as quickly diminishing in number, have been making headlines. They are held responsible, in good measure, for boosting service-industry credit outstanding from slightly under one billion dollars 10 years ago to more than 2.5 billion today.

Since on-the-cuff living appears to be in vogue for us all, you'll want to know the difference, say, between American Express and the Diners Club service. How about the free credit cards issued by oil companies to their stockholders, by railroads, airlines, car rental firms and so forth?

THIS CREDIT CARD business is hardly static. As far as possible, here is the rundown on what the competitors are offering: American Express and Diners Club ask you to pay $6 and $5 respectively for the convenience of "charging it." The oil companies, railroads etc., offer their credit cards free as a sales device although for an expensive foreign tour you may have to forfeit a deposit.

Oil company and other specific credit cards are good only if you buy or patronize the product or service of the company issuing the card.

American Express and Diners Club are racing each other to extend "universal service" to their card-carrying members. Thus far this "universal service" appears split up thusly:

For American Express card holders roughly 20,000 outlets. These include former Gourmet Guest Club restaurants as well as the 4,500 hotels whose American Hotel Assn. Universal Travelcard now belongs to American Express.

BESIDES RESTAURANTS, hotels, night spots and gift shops, American Express cards are honored by Western Union, RCA Communications, American Cable and Radio, car rental stations of Hertz, Avis, Greyhound and National.

You can also park at Kinney parking lots with this card, hire office temporaries called Kelly Girls, and get your car repaired at any one of the 32,900 Chrysler, Ford or General Motors dealers.

At any of the American Express' 400 round-the-globe offices you can charge airline, railroad, steamship, sightseeing and travel tour tickets. Established long before the American Express card, Diners Club, which has just joined forces with the Esquire Club, promises its card is good at 19,000 different establishments in 76 countries as well as at the 49 Sheraton Hotels.

In many cities this includes car rentals, gas station service, liquor, gift and florist shop purchases, sending overseas cablegrams via American Cable & Radio.

It includes hiring temporary secretarial talent from an outfit called Manpower Inc., viewing performances at the American Ballet Theater and taking out travel insurance policies from the Beneficial Standard Life Insurance Co.

Deaths and Funerals

Mrs. Michael Schorsten

CANTON — Mrs. Katherine Schorsten, 62, of 4537 12th St. N.W., was pronounced dead on arrival at Aultman Hospital following a heart seizure suffered at her home Monday evening.

A native of Transylvania, she was a former resident of Beloit and Alliance, coming to Canton 24 years ago.

She was a member of the Canton Zion Lutheran Church and the Saxon Lodge of Salem.

Besides her husband, Michael, she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Esther Girsch of Phoenix, Ariz.;

two sons, Walter of Canton and Capt. Edward Schorsten of the Air Force, and seven grandchildren.

Tentative funeral arrangements are scheduled for Thursday at 3 p.m. in Zion Lutheran Church, with the Rev. Tom D. Homrighausen officiating.

Burial will be in Forest Hill Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Schorsten Funeral Home Wednesday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m.

Mrs. Detrow Funeral

COLUMBIANA — Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Midway Mennonite Church for Mrs. Ella L. Detrow, 89, of the Green-Beaver Township Road, who died at 6:30 a.m. Monday at the Shady Lane Rest Home in Salem where she had resided the past year.

The body will lie in state for one hour before the service. The Rev. Paul Yoder and the Rev. Ernest Martin will officiate, with burial in Midway Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Fry Funeral Home Wednesday evening. Born in Green Township, April 22, 1869, she was the daughter of Christian and Fanny Martin Lehman. She had resided in the same house all of her life. On Jan. 22, 1907 she married Alvin Detrow, who died May 6, 1945.

Survivors include a son-in-law, Leonard Bayard, with whom she resided the past six years; a step son, James Rhodes of Columbiana; 12 grandchildren; and a sister, Mrs. Cassie Martin of Columbiana.

Mahoning

that a committee be appointed to study school sites.

Maps of the school district were distributed.

The committee made plans to meet every other week at 8 p.m. in the McKinley School at Sebring.

It was decided that two-thirds of the committee must be present to constitute a quorum. In voting, a bare majority will rule with the exception of the final recommendation to the board which must be carried by a two-thirds vote and signed by members of the committee.

It was stressed that no recommendation of the committee will be binding on the school board. The board members were asked to attend the first part of the Dec. 3 committee meeting to further clarify duties and purpose.

It was decided to invite Robert Manchester of the State Board of Education in Columbus to appear in an advisory capacity at the Dec. 3 meeting.

The 39 members, representative of the district, include: From Sebring — Frank LeFever, John Watson, J. Dawson, W. G. Milner, Kenneth Anderson, Scott E. Patterson, J. A. Cannell, Mrs. Harold Ludwig, the Rev. Franklin McAllister, Donald Wilson, Dr. John Smith, Raymond Votaw, Charles L. Mack, and Julius Pizdas.

Soil Conservation Dinner Set Dec. 2

The seventh annual meeting of the Mahoning County Soil Conservation District will be Dec. 2 at 7:30 p.m. at Greenford School. The banquet will be served family style by the Young Adult Class of Lo-cust Grove Baptist Church.

Speaker will be Herbert B. Eagon, director of the Department of Natural Resources of Ohio. Mr. Eagon has a 346-acre farm in Delaware County and has been a cooper in the Delaware Soil Conservation District for several years. He is a former supervisor of his local Soil Conservation District and also area vice president of the National Association of Soil Conservation Districts.

Eldon Grove, farm editor for WFMJ, Youngstown, will be master of ceremonies.

Two supervisors will be elected to fill the expiring terms of Delbert Zimmerman and John A. Cullar. Those nominated are Richard Bare of Salem, John A. Cullar of North Lima, Robert Hammett of Poland and Delbert Zimmerman of Lowellville.

Tickets for the dinner meeting are available at the Soil Conservation District office and the extension Service office in Canfield.

but trustees of the neighborhood house decided not to accept it. They decided to try to raise their own funds.

His passive resistance to the processes of federal court here extended to the first hearing on the charge. Aides carried him into that one, too.

But the second hearing, at which he was bound to the grand jury, was conducted without him when he failed to arrive and scheduled a prayer meeting at his church instead.

He has stated his viewpoint on taxes and the charge several times, said that if he were charged with a traffic violation, he'd respond readily.

But he said, "I cannot cooperate with carrying out of a law I believe is evil. It is my hatred of war that makes it impossible for me to obey (court orders)."

As for his taxes, the government has obtained part of its money by liens and other devices.

The conference on which the current charge is based was to talk over his taxes for 1955-1956.

West Point PTA Has Thanksgiving Program

WEST POINT — The West Point Parent-Teacher Association met Monday evening, with Mrs. Dorothy Smith, president, presiding.

A Thanksgiving program was presented by Miss Elizabeth Butler's third grade.

Delegates were appointed to attend the county PTA council Wednesday, Nov. 19, at McDonald School in Wellsville.

Action was taken to buy playground equipment for the school. The attendance banner was won by Miss Butler's third grade. Mothers of the third graders served lunch.

The next meeting will be held Monday, Dec. 15, when a Christmas theme will be observed.

Driver Fined, Three Forfeit Bonds In Lisbon

LISBON — John Koffel of Lisbon RD 1 was fined $150 and costs and sentenced to three days in jail at a hearing Monday night before Mayor John Todd on a charge of driving while intoxicated. He was cited by village police.

Three other motorists forfeited bonds when they failed to appear for hearings. They are:

Arthur W. Cavallo, 29, of Akron and Noble Miller, 41, of Wierton, W. Va. each $15, speeding. The latter three were cited by the state highway patrol.

ing into a culvert under Ohio 113. Dale lost his balance, fell into the water and was swept into the quarter-mile-long culvert.

His father, William Sr., 39, was summoned by the brothers.

"I jumped in and tried to feel in the culvert," the father said, "but there was nothing there. It was too small for me to enter, but the water was sucking me down."

Dale's body was recovered 1,500 feet downstream from where he disappeared.

home from Youngstown, Fr. Slip-ski said it was possible Raymond had been in Toronto the same day after his return.

The jury, which had been excused during Fr. Slip-ski's testimony, was recalled at 10 a.m. and Cunningham went on the stand. Cunningham under questioning by Atty Samuel Fekett, co-defense counsel, denied entering the hardware store in a burglary.

He told of his experience as police officer, including parking meter duty and fingerprint work.

Cunningham also denied asking Robert McBane, ex-officer, to change his plea of guilty to burglary indictments.

McBane testified last week as a chief prosecution witness linking the three defendants with him in the hardware store entering.

Meanwhile, the East Liverpool Municipal Court arraignment for Cunningham on a charge of attempting to bribe a juror summoned to try him on a burglary charge will be delayed at least until the end of the current trial at Lisbon.

Cunningham, taken into custody Saturday night on a warrant signed by Prosecuting Atty. Brokaw was scheduled tentatively for a preliminary hearing today on the charge of attempted jury bribing.

However, the prosecutor said today the preliminary hearing date was tentative and that Cunningham probably will be arraigned when Common Pleas Court concludes his current trial.

Cunningham is free on $1,500 bond. He is accused of making an offer of money Sunday, Nov. 9, to a person summoned to serve on the jury in the trial which opened the following day.

600 Persons Attend Rubinoff Concert

Six hundred students and teachers attended the one-hour concert presented by Rubinoff Monday morning at Beaver Local High School.

The violin virtuoso's appearance was under the auspices of the Lisbon Kiwanis Club. Proceeds are earmarked for the underprivileged children fund.

drive Allied occupation forces out of West Berlin.

Eburov said international tension would be eased if the West stopped trying to send Russian emigre spies into the Soviet Union.

Earlier today Pravda, the Soviet Communist party newspaper, charged that West Berlin was a hotbed of espionage activity against the Soviet bloc.

The Soviet campaign against the Allied occupation already has won a significant propaganda victory for Nikita Khrushchev.

The East German Communists are swaggering.

The West Germans are worried.

Forced To Reappraise

The United States, Britain and France have been forced to reappraise their refusal to deal with the East German satellite regime.

Khrushchev got these results with the verbal shock treatment. The Soviet premier demanded Nov. 10 that the Allies abandon their occupation of West Berlin.

He promised to hand over Soviet occupation powers in East Berlin to the East Germans.

Pravda said today the Soviet government "is unshakable in its decision" to change the occupation status of Berlin. Western approval is not needed for the Kremlin to carry out its decisions, the Communist party newspaper added, Moscow radio broadcast the article.

So far the Russians and their East German satellite leaders have talked without acting. But the talk startled the West into re-examining its policies when Khrushchev hinted at a possible new Berlin blockade.

Khrushchev indicated he might hand over to the East Germans control over Allied access to their garrisons in West Berlin, across 110 miles of East Germany. This would force the Allies either to give up overland supply routes and resort to an airlift.

Reports from Washington and London speak of possible restricted contacts with the East Germans if they take over control of the Allied supply line.

Limited contacts might not imply diplomatic recognition. But the talk alone has been enough to yank East German leaders out of the dusty shadows. Since the Russians set up their regime nine years ago, the East Germans have been among the most despised and ignored satellite leaders in Eastern Europe.

Tornadoes and high winds caused damage in Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri and Iowa as the storm system approached.

Scattered severe thunderstorms and possible tornadoes were forecast for an area from extreme southeastern Iowa to extreme southeastern Wisconsin.

Highway accidents caused three deaths in Missouri, two in Colorado and one in South Dakota.

High winds caused two other deaths. A Texas oil field worker was killed when winds blew over an oil rig near Odessa. An Oklahoma woman died when a high wind struck her chicken house.

Heart attacks caused two deaths in the Oklahoma snow.

Adult Program Set At Beaver High School

An adult education program will begin Wednesday evening at 7 at Beaver Local High School, according to Lee Kirkland, principal.

Both men and women are invited to enroll in the four 10-week courses being offered. They are farming success, business administration, welding and shop wood-working.

Quakers Are 13th In Final Grid Poll; Alliance Is Champ

Warren Sneaks Into 12th Place

Unbeaten Marion Is Ranked 2nd

Salem's Quakers garnered 26 more points in this week's final Associated Press poll but nevertheless Earle Bruce's squad dropped from 12th to 13th place among the state's teams.

The Red and Black gathered 69 points today but could do no better than 13th behind Warren and Parma in the second top ten.

Last week Salem was in 12th place with 43 points and Warren in 13th with 41. This week the Black Panthers picked up 73 points including one first place vote to move ahead of Salem.

A total of 51 sports editors, the largest this figure this season, took part in the final balloting of the season.

Around the district Youngstown East stayed in the elite class by ending in ninth place while East Palestine was 17th and Canfield 23rd having moved up from 28th last week.

Alliance's Aviators wore the crown today as king of Ohio's high school football teams for 1958.

Coach Mel Knowlton's stalwarts, who blanked seven of 10 opponents in defeating nine and tying Massillon, were awarded the championship by 51 sports editors in the final Associated Press poll.

The 34 newspaper and 17 radio-television scribes, voting for 10 teams on a 10-9-8-etc. basis, gave the Aviators a 70 - point margin over Gordon Larson's unbeaten untied Marion Harding Presidents. Alliance picked up 15 first place votes, more than twice the number garnered by anyone else.

Springfield's Wildcats, who compiled a 9-1 record after a disastrous 1957 campaign, wound up third. The 'Cats were beaten only by Hamilton's Big Blue, 8 to 6. Massillon, beaten by Warren and tied by Alliance, was fourth. Cleveland Cathedral Latin, tied by Warren and with two games to go, finished fifth.

After that came Elyria, unbeaten-untied Dayton Fairmont, Toledo DeWibiss, Youngstown East and Toledo Libbey to round out the top ten.

In gaining the top spot Alliance outscored 10 opponents 322 to 34, piled up 3,493 yards against 1,587, and had only one of 96 passes intercepted as 39 were completed for 769 yards. The Aviators blanked their last six opponents, winding up with a 52-0 verdict over East Liverpool.

From here and there: Massillon beat Canton McKinley 38-16 to take a 31-27.5 edge in the 63-game series.

Hamilton, which used the extra points to whip Springfield 8-6, lost the last two by the same method to Lima and Middletown for a 5-5 record.

Ken Johnson of New Concord captured the state scoring laurels with 204 points, getting 10 in the 42-0 finale against Philo. Pomeroy halfback Vern Harrison scored 12 in a 26-22 win over Belpre, boasting him to 158 for nine games, and he has a Thanksgiving Day date against Middleport. Notre Dame of Portsmouth dropped Portsmouth East 24-6, with Tailback Nick Weber getting all 24 for the season total of 148. It was Notre Dame's first winning campaign in eight years, and Coach Bill Apel's boys snagged the Southern Ohio Conference Crown with 7-1-1.

Fremont Ross, after three straight undefeated seasons, compiled a 1-7-2 record this year. The entire starting backfield from last year graduated, and injuries plagued the replacements.

Warren Harding, which led the poll several weeks in mid-season, finished with a 62-16 triumph over Youngstown South with Paul Warfield getting three touchdowns for a 92-point total.

Booster Club to Make Plans for Grid Banquet

The Salem Boosters Club will meet Thursday evening at 7:30 in the Memorial Building.

Plans will be discussed for the forthcoming football banquet. All members are urged to attend.

Sports Sketches

By GORDON ARNDT

The Salem basketball team scrimmaged against Youngstown Chaney and Canton Lincoln last week.

In the next two weeks Coach John Cabas has additional skirmishes coming up with Canton Glenwood, Massillon, Farrell, Pa., and Youngstown Ursuline.

In each game thus far Cabas has been substituting freely in an attempt to see which players "have it" and which ones should get the axe.

Of the 18 regular season opponents this season, the Quakers hold an all-time edge over 14 of them. Youngstown South, East Liverpool and Akron St. Vincent are the only 1958-59 foes who have beaten the Quakers more times than they have lost to them. The Dec. 26 game here with Cleveland East Tech will be the first meeting in history for the two teams.

SALEM holds a 20-5 margin over Struthers, 21-4 over East Palestine and 12-6 over Columbiana. The rest are New Philadelphia 4-1, East 4-3, Warren 14-13, Ravena 13-6, Niles 10-4, Sebring 15-4, Rayen 19-10, Wellsville 21-1, Boardman 10-1, Akron East 1-0 and Girard 16-5.

South's mark over Salem is 13-4 while Liverpool is 22-13 and St. Vincent 4-3.

The combined record of Salem against its 1958-59 opponents is 200-102.

The Quakers will take part in the annual preseason preview in Alliance on Nov. 29.

They'll open a 13-game home schedule Dec. 9 against Struthers. Season tickets for $12 may now be ordered at both Fisher's News agency and Heddleston's Drug store. Fans are urged to order their tickets early so that they may obtain a "good" seat and avoid a last-minute rush.

Two of the first three games are away but at the end of the season seven of the last eight are here.

SALEM is currently working on two win streaks. They have a 19-game regular season string going, plus 10 straight wins on the home floor.

Salem's basketball teams have lost only one regular season game in the last 23 and have been on the short end of the score only twice in their last 29 contests.

One guess as to who wears the largest shoe among the Red and Black basketballers. It's Lou Slaby with a size 16. Clyde Marks and Jim Soleman wear 14s.

There are 410 Class AA and 602 Class A high schools enrolled in the Ohio High School Athletic Association.

Salem is a member of the north-eastern district which is the largest in the state. It has 162 AA schools listed. The central district has 36 AA schools, eastern 31, northwestern 63, southeastern 26 and southwestern 92.

In other words, when tourney play comes around next February, the locals will be competing with 409 other schools for the state Class AA crown.

ATHLETIC Director Fred E. Cone is hard at work these days trying to complete the 1959 football schedule. He has sent out 200 letters in an attempt to fill two more dates. Seven games have been listed thus far.

Tickets for the annual Boosters Club football banquet to be held Dec. 6 in the high school cafeteria are now on sale at Heddlestons. Fishers, Hoopes Tire Service and Kresges. The price is $2.50. Grid Coach Earle Bruce will be the main speaker.

THE ANNUAL LEETONIA High School grid fete will take place this Saturday at the O.S.I. Club in Leetonia. It is being sponsored by the men and women of the organization.

This Wednesday night the Fairfield-Waterford Boosters Club will sponsor a "Parents-Boosters Night" which is to be held in the school gymnasium. This year's team will be introduced and new rule changes discussed.

The final Associated Press poll of the season for football teams came out today. Salem ended 10th last year.

Canton Timken, whom Salem blanked 21-0, had two players named to the first team of the Canton Repository All-Greater Canton grid team. They included quarterback Joe Valko and end Joe Lee.

Two other Trojans were placed on the second team. They were Cal Mowry, a tackle, and Dick Mikes, a center.

Valko set two school records during the season by passing for 10 touchdowns and 1,077 yards. Against Salem he connected on eight of 12 tries for 180 yards.

LSU Still No. 1 in AP Poll; Iowa Drops to No. 6 Position

By The Associated Press
Louisiana State, the nation's only major college football team still unbeaten and untied, has opened up a wide lead in the race for the national championship in The Associated Press poll of sports writers and sportscasters.

With the season drawing to a close, a big vote of 183 writers and TV-radio men left LSU the unquestioned leader. Despite its close call against Mississippi State, which LSU barely topped 7-6, the No. 1 team polled 114 first place ballots.

Unless Tulane is able to upset Louisiana State in Saturday's finale, the Tigers will wind up with a perfect 10-0 record.

Auburn moved up to second place with strong support after its 21-6 victory over Georgia. Iowa, last week's runner-up, dropped to sixth after losing to Ohio State 38-28.

Army remained in third position after its 26-0 decision over Villanova. The Cadets, tied only by Pitt, still must beat Navy to finish unbeaten.

Oklahoma's decisive 39-0 thumping of Missouri moved the Sooners up to fourth place with 22 first place ballots.

Wisconsin held tight to fifth after beating Illinois, 31-12, and Texas as Christian advanced to seventh, a step behind Iowa, by knocking off Texas 22-8.

Purdue clung to eighth off its 23-6 triumph over Northwestern and the Air Force Academy advanced a peg to ninth. Syracuse made 10th place by bombing Col-

Herman Elected Commissioner Of Ohio's Hot Stove Leagues

John H. Herman Jr. of Salem was elected head commissioner of the Ohio state hot stove baseball leagues when representatives of 29 state chapters met in Alliance Sunday afternoon.

Herman's job will be to help organize new leagues, give advice and to assist new chapters.

Herman will head a board of 20 commissioners in the state who represent the governing body in any rule violations.

Sam Keele of Akron replaced Herman as the state president. Herman declined to run again for the presidency stating that he wanted to devote more time to his local Salem chapter.

More than 30 teams are expected to take part in Salem's 1959 hot stove program.

John Dean of Lorain was chosen vice president of the state wide group while Carl Burnett of Alliance was named secretary-treasurer.

Two Changes Discussed

The group discussed two major changes to be installed next year. The men decided to form a Class C league for boys 18 and 19 years of age. Also, they elected to set up sectional, district and state playoffs for the Class H leagues (6 to 8 years of age) who here tofore only played on the local league level.

Boys who don't reach 20 years of age by Sept. 1 are eligible for the Class C circuit.

The 1959 national tourney again will be played in Alliance, the state headquarters.

Plans are now under way to extend the hot stove program throughout every state in the country. The program now covers 28 states.

The hot stove baseball association is the only one of its kind in the United States whereby it covers all ages from eight through 20.

The next state meeting will be held in Akron in January.

Members of the Salem chapter who attended the meeting were Francis Taubler, district commissioner, along with Charles Tomlinson and Robert Conley.

The Salem chapter will hold a meeting this Sunday at 2 p.m. at the American Legion home. Drawings for players for the Class G league will be held. All 1959 Class H managers are asked to turn in their list of players prior to the drawing.

Although the ancient and honored rivals from the north have won only two of eight games—each by a single point—and given up 191 points while scoring 118, Coach Woody Hayes warns the Wolverines could be rugged.

Bennie Oosterbaan, Michigan mentor, retires after the tilt before some 83,000 fans. The poor season, and the "let's win one for Bennie" attitude, could boost the Michigans to a gaudy performance.

Hayes told his press conference Monday that:

"Sentimentally, Michigan will try everything to win this last one for Bennie. And if they weren't playing us, I'd be rooting for him, too. He's a fine coach, a fine gentleman."

Hayes also had some kind words for Forest Evashevski, the Iowa mentor who saw his Hawkeyes handed their first loss, 38-28, by Ohio last Saturday.

"He is responsible for the fine sportsmanship we found out there," Woody declared. He has given Iowa fine football and leadership. Iowa is a proud school, with a proud team and proud spectators. Forest is responsible for it."

The Buckeye boss said it normally takes about nine days to get a team's feet back on the ground after a win like that over Iowa, but insisted "we can't wait that long."

Although Michigan has had a poor season in the victory column, it almost matches Ohio in statistics. Both have been out-gained by the opposition, and each is four first downs back of the foe. Each has been forced to punt 43 times, and each has drawn 297 yards in penalties.

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Ray "Scooter" McLean, coach of the drooping Green Bay Packers, has reached the point where he might just as well pick his starting quarterback by the old eenie-meenie-miney-mo routine.

The results are the same. The Packers go right on losing National Football League games.

They have scored just 17 points in their last 3 games—and lost all 3. Their overall record is 1-6-1, worst in the league.

Lately, McLean has been starting Bart Starr and Vito Parilli in alternate games and then using rookie Joe Francis in the fourth quarter just long enough for him to get his feet wet.

Variable Vito, better known as Babe, quarterbacked the Packers to their only victory, a 38-35 squeaker over the Eagles. Before that game—and since—the Babe has been his usual, unpredictable self.

The game that is symbolic with tradition — Yale vs. Harvard, this year at Cambridge, Mass., went to the preparedness stages. Harvard, a 54-0 loser at New Haven last year, had four men on the injury list but all were expected to see action.

Yale welcomed back quarterback Tom Singleton. His alternate, Art Lavallee, definitely is out of Saturday's game with a shoulder separation.

They're battling over an Old Oaken Bucket in Indiana, when Purdue and Indiana get together Saturday. A victory for the Boilermakers would make them state champs since they defeated Notre Dame, Indiana was an 18-0 loser to the Irish.

State Saturday in Columbus, Ohio. They watched movies and went over scouting reports on OSCU.

In Columbus, Buckeye mentor Woody Hayes said he didn't plan any hard work this week.

North Carolina Coach Jim Tatum gave recognition to the senior members of the Tarheel squad by making them co-captains for the intrastate game with Duke.

Herrons, Fireside, Owens, Marks Cop Opening City Cage Contests

Terrific individual scoring performances highlighted the opening night Monday in the 1958-59 Salem City Basketball League.

Four games were staged in the Monday Division with Herron Transfer coming from behind in the second half to down Foreman's Window Cleaning 61-48, Fireside Inn rallying in the late stages to edge Gasco 58-53, Owen's Service smashing Goshen Grange 77-50 and Mark's Landing nipping Millville Friends in a thriller 50-46.

Foremans solved Herrons zone defense in the first half to go out to a 26-19 lead at the intermission. The eventual winners then shifted to a man-toman defense in the late stages. It proved puzzling to the losers and enabled Herron to go on the cop the verdict.

Ed Bozick paced the winners with 17 tallies while Wayne Harris hooped 15, Carl Ciccozzi 12 and Bob Lutsch 10.

Ed Wilson was high for the losers with 17 while Ed Stefani rimmed 10.

The fourth frame was the big one for John Kozar's squad as they outpointed Fortman's 24-13 in the frame.

Fourteen points each by Weeps Williams and Dick Deitz paced Fireside Inn over Gasco. Jim Kelly and Ed Mallernee had 16 and 18 respectively for the losers. The winners led all the way being ahead 27-10 at the half.

Three different players each scored 25 points in Owens thumping of Goshen Grange.

Raloh Zurbrugg and Jim Ippolite each performed the feat for the winners while Claire Weingart did so for Goshen.

The winners trailed 11-10 at the quarter but were way ahead at 56-41 going into the fourth frame.

Twenty-six points by Dean Nicholson, the best individual effort of the night, led Marks over Millville. Jim Weizenecker scored 18 for the losers who trailed 25-23 at the half and 36-33 after three periods.

Four more games will be played tomorrow night in the Wednesday division. They are: 7, Burtons vs. Speakers; 8, Riffles vs. Schaffers; 9, Millers vs. Salem News and 10, Farmers vs. Bennets.

COLUMBIANA

Council Reviews Bids On Fire Truck Tonight

COLUMBIANA — Council, at its regular session tonight at Town Hall, will consider six bids received in response to the village advertisement for a new pumper for the Volunteer Fire Department.

The bids reportedly run close to $20,000. Bids received earlier this year in response to similar advertising all were rejected when those meeting specifications generally were well over $20,000. The Fire Department rewrote the specifications for the latest advertising, cutting off some items and altering others so as to reduce the overall cost of the truck.

Chicago Man Admits Slaying Girl Friend

CHICAGO (AP) — A gangling, jobless masonry worker was held by police today after they said he admitted the gruesome slaying of his former 15-year-old girl friend.

Police said Charles Melquist, 23, self-described "big brother" of Bonnie Leigh Scott, admitted he smothered the high school sophomore with a pillow in his auto in suburban Villa Park the night of Sept. 22 after she resisted his advances.

He then disrobed her and drove to a forest preserve where he disposed of her body in a ditch.

The girl's nude, decapitated body was found Saturday by a group of BOY Scouts where Melquist said he had dumped it.

Melquist was quoted by police as saying he returned to the body four days after the slaying.

"I thought I killed her in a dream," he said, "and I went to see if the body was there."

On the night of Oct. 30, police said Melquist related during five hours of questioning, he went back and severed the head from the body with a four-inch knife.

He said that since the slaying he has been having "terrible dreams."

Bonnie Leigh was reported missing after she failed to return home the night of Sept. 22. She lived with her grandmother and an aunt and uncle in suburban Addison, a few miles from Melquist's home. Her parents are separated.

Twister Rips Through Missouri Postoffice

MOUNDVILLE, Mo. (AP)—When a twister struck Moundville Monday, Postmaster Leasel M. Jones was home or lunch.

The wind let up after 15 minutes and Jones rushed to the post office. Every letter, paper, periodical was swept away, including his $250 stock of stamps and about $30 in currency. Four windows of the building were blown out and all others were shattered.

Townpeople brought in about 75 letters they found along the tornado's path. Jones recovered about $40 worth of stamps and two crumpled $1 bills.
